

ROHIT NEGI, ASSISTANT PROFESSOR

I am interested in social theory, critical perspectives on development, and political ecology. I have a Master's degree in Urban Planning from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign and PhD in Geography from the Ohio State University. I have taught courses on Urban Ecology, Research Methodology, Development Studies, and Regional Geography.

CURRENT RESEARCH

I am presently working on the following projects:

- The geopolitics and political ecology of resource extraction: comparative study of mining in Africa and India.
- Vulnerability in the mid-Himalayas: state development policies, markets, and rural change in Himachal Pradesh.
